Eminent journalist, author, and former union minister, Arun Shourie was in Hyderabad to attend a book event on Friday. Organised by Manthan — Forum for Public Discourse, the list of invitees include prominent personalities of the city who listened in rapt attention to Shourie's discourse, as he spoke about solutions to improve the functioning of the judicial system in India. He left the audience in splits as he narrated one case after another highlighting the anomalies in the judicial system. Later he also responded to questions from the audience for about one hour.
